

POLMOR Sp. z o.o.

Infrastructure | Rolling stock | Parts

POLMOR is a producer of structures and sub-assemblies for the railway industry and machinery carbon steel, stainless steel and aluminium for the processing industry. The plant has a modern, well-organised park of machinery and its employees are high-skilled specialists capable of meeting the requirements of the present-day market.

Currently, POLMOR has about 450 employees in Poland and 150 employees in India. The personnel's extensive knowledge facilitates the implementation and use of new technologies, materials and work methods.

The company aims to meet the expectations and needs of its customers at all times, delivering satisfactory final products and continuously improving its customer relations. POLMOR has customers in most of the European countries, but also in India, the USA and Australia. Thanks to knowledge and experience acquired over the years and a skilled team of employees we are able to provide comprehensive service to our customers - from a concept to the finished product.

We offer:

- conceptual works - developing preliminary product concepts and technical solutions, consulting
- project management - planning, supervision, risk and project feasibility analyses, project KPI analysis, work in dedicated project teams
- design - selection of components and technology, functional analyses, strength analyses, safety and reliability analyses (RAMS), calculation of product life cycle cost
- prototype and verification - production of prototypes, strength tests, functional tests, production instrumentation design
- serial production based on own designs or customer-submitted documentation
- quality management - at every project performance stage the quality of our products is controlled all the time to ensure compliance with the strictest quality standards.

Examples of POLMOR's products:

- motor block housings
- stainless steel roofs, steel and aluminium generator housings
- converter housings
- traction converter housings
- pulpit structures
- battery systems
- electrical cabinets
- bumpers, energy absorbers
- locomotive-mounted snow blowers.

Dane teleadresowe

ul. Lęborska 24

77-100 Bytów, Poland

tel.: +48 59 822 30 84

polmor.pl/