

Vossloh Cogifer Polska sp. z o.o.

Infrastructure

Vossloh Cogifer Polska sp. z o.o. is an enterprise specialized in production of turnouts, rail junctions, and other track structure installations. For more than 70 years of market presence, our company has participated in countless projects related to construction and upgrading of railway lines and stations of the railway network of Polskie Koleje Państwowe (Polish State Railways; PKP). The company has earned recognition and trust of its business partners, maintaining a leader among rail suppliers on the Polish market. Vossloh is a member of the international consortium Vossloh SA, a global player on the railway infrastructure market. We are able to supply products for many exciting projects that improve safety and convenience of travels, also enhance the transport capacity of railway, tram, and rapid transit lines.

Vossloh Cogifer Polska sp. z o.o. is modern facility, employing qualified personnel and offering specialist technology resources as well as design and research backup. We provide design and production of track installations, delivery to construction site, assembling supervision, and service during the warranty period. We use these tools to bring on of the box projects. Among others supplying the PKP PLK network, with upgrades of turnouts that allow trains to travel up to 250 km/h.

We operate with highly modern production technologies and management methods. We have implemented novelties in quality, safety, and environmental management systems. Every product we offer meets the requirements of industry standards. It is also equipped in necessary certificates and approvals for use in Poland and on European and global markets.

We are looking forward to doing business with you.

Dane teleadresowe

ul. Ludwikowo 2

85-502 Bydgoszcz

tel.: + 48 52 322 52 24

contact-poland@vossloh.com

www.vossloh.com